Internationalization is a noble goal aspiring to various universities and in order to achieve this goal, Ain Shams University is welcoming all of you to its

Seventh International Conference under the title "Internationalization and Mobilization to emphasize the role of the University to develop various systems in it beginning from the educational process to the administrative system and up to the graduate and the scientific research provided

This development will be reflected in the end at the society in general and at the graduate in particular, in addition to the image of the university among the universities of the world

This conference is a part of the efforts of Ain Shams University in the current period to reach the highest ranks of international universities in the World ranking The University has been interested in opening up to international universities through agreements, joint projects & research and international events The University has also paid a great attention to support ongoing research by supporting achievement of the University's goals of Internationalization and Mobilization

I hope that all of you will find the conference this year a huge networking opportunity and looking towards welcoming you in Egypt "the Cradle of Civilization"

Thanks
